Colonial Heritage UNITED

Please help the Colonial Heritage Festival continue.

The Colonial Heritage Festival is brought to you by volunteers from Colonial Heritage Foundation and United We Pledge, both 501(c)(3) public charities. These volunteers come from many areas of the country, giving their time and resources as a labor of love to make this event a success.

Please consider making a financial contribution using the QR codes below or at the gift shop (Map #1) to support this event going forward. We can't do it without you. To volunteer your time or to become a participant, please see the other side.

Thank you for attending (& supporting) Colonial Heritage Festival.

Military History Days Experience the people and displays representing the World War II era, located at the north end of Scera Park.

American Heritage Museum Come see a prodigious collection of relics from our nation's past: Colonial artifacts, Civil War antiquities, rare sports memorabilia, Mormon relics and much more! Located in the Scera Theater. Cries of Freedom

This 60 minute show will remind you of our grand and glorious heritage and teach you about people from other countries who have their own Cry of Freedom! Located in Scera Theater.

Get Involved

Working together to honor our nation's founding is a great way to show and develop patriotism in your family. Whether you are interested in donning 18th century attire at events like this one, lending your strong arms to help with set-up and take-down, or working behind the scenes in other capacities, such as photography, web design, video production, costume design & production, bookkeeping, or event management, there is work for you to do. Scan the "Volunteer to Help" QR code below and we'll connect you with the Colonial Heritage Foundation in Northern Utah or United We Pledge in Southern Utah.
